This lecture series has replaced the old evening class and is a live audio delivered class via conference call. The student will receive a call-in number along with an access code. It is an outstanding way to prepare for the Series 7 exam and is delivered over a six week period called cycles. The lectures are bite sized which is great for learning and, in case a student misses a session, they are recorded to listen to later. The sessions are twice a week on Tuesday and Thursday and run from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm Central Time. Each day is a different topic. Please note that students do have to attend two days of a regular Series 7 Day class at the Marquette Hotel (612.333.4545) in downtown Minneapolis (Class time is 8:30 am to 5:00 pm) as they have in the past with the old evening class. The format actually provides more teaching time than the old evening class and students don't have to drive downtown anymore or worry about late bus schedules. Also, all students still receive all the famous Dodd Notes as they have in the past. Lastly, students may opt to attend a full week long Series 7 Day class at no extra charge.
